RESPONSE TO NOTIFICATION OF MISSING REQUIREMENTS

Sir:

On the Notification of Missing Requirements dated April 27, 2006, the inquiry was made as to the difference in spelling between the first inventor's last name on the Declaration and on the international application. That is, the first inventor's last name is spelled "Shimoyama" in the U.S. application and "Simoyama" in the international application. The reason for this difference is that the Japanese pronunciation of "Shi" and "Si" are the same and both spellings are commonly used to pronounce the first part of the first inventor's last name. "Shi" is the most common spelling and is used in the U.S. application. However, "Shimoyama" in the U.S. application and "Simoyama" in the international application are the same person, with both spellings of the last name being correct according to Japanese pronunciation.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any additional fee which may be required by this paper, or to credit any overpayment, to Deposit Account No. 06-1382. A duplicate copy of this sheet is enclosed.

Respectfully submitted,
